DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the amendment filed May 23, 2006. Claims 1-9 are currently rejected.

Withdrawal of Rejections

2. The objection of claims 4-9 as being drawn to improper multiple dependent claims is withdrawn.
3. The rejection of claims 1 under 35 U.S.C. 112 as being indefinite is withdrawn.

Maintenance of Rejections

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by a water-soluble keratin derivative taught by Kuniomi et al. (1990), Homonoff et al. (2001), and Yoshioka et al. (1981).

Response to applicants' arguments

5. Applicants assert that Kuniomi et al. (1990), Homonoff et al. (2001), and Yoshioka et al. (1981). do not anticipate the present invention because they do not teach all the essential elements of the claims. Applicants specifically argue that the references do not teach or suggest a material with the stated emission values.

Applicants' assertions are not found persuasive because Kuniomi et al. (1990), Homonoff et al. (2001), and Yoshioka et al. (1981) teach all the limitations of the instant claims. Although claims 1 and 2 have been revised to indicate specific features and properties of the high energy wave absorber of the present invention, these features are inherent to the protein itself, taught by Kuniomi et al, Homonoff et al., and Yoshioka et al.

Conclusion

6. No claim is allowed.

7. Applicants' amendment necessitated the new ground of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

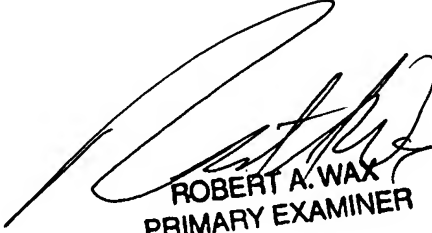

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
